THOMPSON MANAGEMENT CONSULTING, LLC – PILE LAW FIRM COLLABORATION

On October 1 – 2, 2016 the owners of Thompson Management Consulting, LLC and Pile Law Firm met at the law office of Pile Law Firm in Germantown, Pennsylvania for a very important 2-day business retreat to discuss a strategic plan to move forward with joint efforts, which would allow both organizations to work collaboratively on various key projects, and leverage resources from one another to best serve their respective markets. Our mission is “to deliver value-added services to our clients, which are built from a commitment to excellence, quality, and integrity.” This collaboration makes us stronger and increases our capabilities.

Thompson Management Consulting, LLC, whose strong offering in writing business plans, marketing, project management, feasibility studies, and other business services will have the opportunity to leverage the services of Pile Law Firm, such as estate planning, tax forms, operating agreements, contract formation and negotiation, setting up an LLC, LLP, and incorporation as an S-Corp or C-Corp, and other legal services. Both organizations have agreed to this collaboration, which, in addition to an expansion of services, will increase an influential presence in all target markets. Pile Law Firm, in its preparation to expand its law practice in the State of Georgia, will have access to a vibrant market for its services through active channels already fostered by Thompson Management Consulting, LLC. Thompson Management Consulting, LLC will capitalize on Pile Law Firm’s strong practice in the states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and capitalizes on the law firm’s fostered channels in both states.

Forming a strategic alliance is considered beneficial to both organizations, as they prepare to expand their reach and capitalize on markets with demand for their respective services. In addition, the collaboration is looking to conduct a feasibility analysis to expand the annual Entrepreneurship and Small Business Summit in Philadelphia and key sites in New Jersey, where Pile Law Firm already has a law practice presence. This event, which targets entrepreneurs and small business owners is in its fourth year in the Metro Atlanta area, and is a key signature event created and organized by Thompson Management Consulting, LLC.

In summary, we are eternally grateful for the opportunity to provide services to the small business market, start-up enterprises and growing businesses. Our primary objective is to provide quality service that will make small businesses and entrepreneurs successful, and work with local chambers of commerce, the Small Business Administration, Small Business Development Centers, SCORE, and other relative organizations to ensure we are providing the best services to our clients.
